February 11, 2021

Unicorn Capital Advisers in Russia served as sole advisor to Integra Group, one of the largest meat processing companies in Volga Federal District on selling its business to a group of private investors.

Commenting, Sergei Moiseyev, Chairman, Unicorn Capital Advisers: “We are excited to announced that we have executed and closed the most momentous deal in the meat processing industry over the past decade. Successful closing reconfirmed Unicorn team top expert-level knowledge and capabilities that ensured the transaction to be completed within the shortest term possible.

I am certain that the Group's high standards will shape a positive consumer experience for everyone who enjoys Integra's products. Integra opened its first production facility in 1997 and has consistently remained one of the top 2 producers of raw smoked sausages, with an output of more than 50 thousand tons per year’.
